

Summer Skillet Gnocchi with Grilled Corn and Burrata

INGREDIENTS

- * 6 servings
- * 4 ears corn, shucked
- * 4 tablespoons unsalted butter, divided
- * 3 cups cherry tomatoes
- * 1 tablespoon extra-virgin olive oil
- * Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
- * 1 pound store-bought gnocchi (A dumpling in Italian cuisine. They are made of small lumps of dough composed of semolina, ordinary wheat flour, egg, cheese, potato, breadcrumbs, cornmeal or similar ingredients.)
- * 1 red onion, sliced
- * 3 garlic cloves, minced
- * 4 ounces arugula
- * Crushed red-pepper flakes, grated Parmesan cheese, burrata cheese and fresh basil leaves, for serving.

Recipes

1. Preheat the grill or set a grill pan over high heat. Brush each ear of corn with $\frac{1}{2}$ tablespoon melted butter. Grill the corn until charred and tender, 5 to 7 minutes. Cut the kernels off the cobs and set aside.
2. Place a cast-iron skillet on the grill (or just on the burner, if you're working inside). In a medium bowl, toss the tomatoes with the olive oil and then season with salt and pepper. Sauté the tomatoes until charred and blistered, about 4 minutes. Remove from heat and set aside.
3. Bring a large pot of salted water to a boil. Add the gnocchi and cook until they float to the surface, 4 to 5 minutes; drain.
4. In the skillet, melt the remaining 2 tablespoons butter over medium heat. Add the onion and sauté until translucent, about 4 minutes. Add the garlic, gnocchi, corn and tomatoes, and sauté until the garlic is fragrant, about 2 minutes. Add the arugula and cook until wilted, about 3 minutes.

September: Fun Facts, Holidays, Historical Events, and More

1. The name September comes from the Latin septem, meaning seven, since it was the seventh month of the Roman calendar, which began with March.
There are 30 days in the month of September, which starts on the same day of the week as
2. December each year but does not end on the same day of the week as any other month in the year.
September has three birth flowers: the forget-me-not, the morning glory, and the aster. Forget-me-nots represent love and memories, asters represent love as well, and the morning glory represents unrequited love. The birthstone for the month is the sapphire.

3. September has several United States and international holidays.

Labor Day is the most well known holiday in September. It is observed every year on the first Monday in September.

Native American Day is always celebrated on the 4th Friday of September.

Grandparent's Day is observed in the United States on the first Sunday after Labor Day.

Constitution Day, celebrating the ratification of the governing document of the United States, is observed on the 17th.

The autumn equinox, which is the traditional transition from summer into fall, takes place on or around September 22nd, depending on the year.

4. On Tuesday morning, September 11, 2001, members of the Islamic terrorist group al-Qaeda hijacked four airliners as part of a series of coordinated attacks against targets in the United States. The Twin Towers in New York City were hit by one plane each, American Airlines Flight 11 and Flight 175, while American Airlines Flight 77 was crashed into the Pentagon in Washington, D.C. The fourth plane, United Airlines Flight 93, is thought to have been headed for the White House, but passengers overtook the hijackers and the plane crashed into a field in rural Pennsylvania.

More than 3,000 people lost their lives during what the deadliest terror attack on U.S. soil to date. Property and infrastructure damage amounted to over $10 billion. The attack is thought to have been ordered by Osama bin Laden, who was finally located and killed in Pakistan by U.S. Navy SEAL Team Six in May 2011. The 9/11 Memorial Museum occupies the sites where the Twin Towers once stood.

5. There are lots of days dedicated to fun activities in September. Look out for these days.

What is Labor Day and why do we celebrate it?

Labor Day is a federal holiday in the United States celebrated on the first Monday in September to honor and recognize the American labor movement and the works and contributions of laborers to the development and achievements of the United States. It is the Monday of the long weekend known as Labor Day Weekend.

With the uptick of the Covid-19 variant, wearing masks and using hand sanitizer is being encouraged.

And Social distancing when possible is advised.

How to Be a Good Apartment Neighbor

A little courtesy can certainly make apartment life much easier.

Be friendly towards others. You don't necessarily need to know them, but a simple hello or greeting goes a long way. Creating friendly relationships also makes it easier to interact in the future if anyone has questions or concerns.

Acknowledge neighbors who smile at you or greet you. You don't have to stop and chat, but a little smile and wave don't cost you anything.

Be soft-spoken when entering and exiting. It may be normal to walk from the parking lot to your front door and vice versa, but you'll need to consider how loud a person is. Avoid stomping on stairwells, especially when leaving before sunrise or coming back late at night.

Be considerate of the noise level inside the apartment. This is one of the most common complaints reported to managers. More noise etiquette is needed if you live above another person.

Have on-site laundry etiquette. It's advisable to time each machine and avoid leaving clothes unattended for any period. Always clean out lint screens and wipe up any spills.

Know the rules for different kinds of apartment parking. Respect all parking space borders by parking within the lines not on them and don't double park.

Offer any positive assistance or convenience to your elderly neighbors.

Have apartment dumpster etiquette. Always break down and fold up boxes and other compact items.

Discard cigarette butts in the proper receptacles. All buildings are SMOKE-FREE. Use the designated area.

Only invite guests over who can respect your apartment buildings house rules. Reckless behavior or any disputes between the guest(s) and another tenant is the leaseholder's responsibility.

Most importantly, be tolerant. Whether you forgot about a load of laundry in the dryer or accidentally slammed a door, we've all behaved inconsiderately at some point. Your neighbors are no different. They aren't perfect either. But everyone needs to put forth the effort to being a good neighbor.
